

SWINDLERS AT WORK.

TWO OF THEM HAVING BEEN DOING AUGUSTA.

The Scheme of James Jones to Raise Money, But the Women Were Too Sharp to Play His Game.

AUGUSTA, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—James Jones, who has been knocking about Augusta several days, was arrested here last night for teaching his tricks for nominal sums, came to grief this morning. He was arrested, charged with cheating and swindling. He was trying to extort money from two white women who were at the point with each other. Jones went to both women and to each offered to remove the other from the neighborhood in which they resided for $10. He was trying to fraudulently make a couple of eagles, and was suspected of being crooked and the women had him arrested. Jones admitted his guilt, but upon promise to leave the city on the first train out was allowed to go. He is tall, well dressed, in a black suit, Prince Albert coat, has sandy hair, large and pleasant blue eyes. He is a slick impostor, a pleasing talker and as sharp as a steel trap.

A FINE OLD FRAUD.

C. P. Lewis, a traveling negro preacher, doctor and lecturer, was arrested here last night and carried to Savannah this morning, under a warrant charging him with cheating and swindling. Lewis was delivering a lecture on his trip in foreign lands, in Bethel church, when he was arrested. Lewis defrauded Margaret Hall, a colored proprietress of a Savannah boarding house, out of $20. He told Margaret, a man named John Hercules, an acquaintance of the woman, had died in New York and left considerable money in the bank there for her. Lewis offered to go to New York and get the money for her, provided she paid his expenses. Margaret gave him $20, but instead of going to New York, he skipped out and came to Augusta. Lewis is said to be also wanted in Jacksonville, Fla., for practicing medicine without a license.

AN OLD LODGE.

Two Macon Negroes Play a Countryman for a "Sucker."

MACON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Last night at the Macon and Northern depot, two Macon negroes, one of whom is like Norwood, a notorious tough, approached an old country negro and asked him how many cards were in a deck. The old fellow answered fifty-two. The negroes then offered to bet him there was not one holding the stakes and the other counting. A bet was made and a deck of cards produced, and on the first count the countryman was told he only fifty-one, the countryman losing $17.50, the amount of the bet. Another bet was made, and this time the countryman lost a pistol, only fifty cards being counted. The old fellow then caught on and caught both negroes. One of them escaped, however, leaving Norwood in the hands of his victim. He was up before court this morning and committed to the city court for cheating and swindling. The old countryman lost his money and pistol, however, as the negro who got away was holding the stakes.

Suspected of Murder.

AUGUSTA, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—A big, burly negro, giving his name as Sam Daniel, was arrested today at Macon, Ga., and brought to Augusta tonight and jailed on suspicion of being Charles Brinsin, the negro who shot and killed Tom Branch in a quarrel about a woman on the common several Saturday nights ago. Daniel says his home is in Allendale, S. C., where he owns property, and that he knows nothing of the killing. He claims to have been working on the South-bound train when the homicide was committed. Daniel says his first visit to Augusta in six years was last week, when he spent three days here on his way to Waynesboro. It will be positively found out tomorrow if the negro is the murderer or not.

A Lively Chase.

THORNTON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—John Barnes, a notoriously bad negro, gave the officers and a motley crowd of followers a long and lively chase this afternoon. Barnes was located about one and a half miles from the city. No sooner had he caught sight of the sheriff and his party than he proceeded to take leg bail in the most approved fashion. About half his pursuers were mounted. They attempted to shake by leading them where the horses were unaccustomed to go. After running him into Fairview, Barnes suddenly found himself confronted by two more officers, Coyle and Creggs, who effected his capture, and he is being held in the city jail. Barnes is an ex-convict, and has a bad reputation. He is wanted for about six different offenses.

He Was Not the Murderer.

CUMMING, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—It was thought that Sheriff Strickland had, in several days, been entertaining a murderer, but not so. A white man, by the name of Gibby, supposed to be wanted in Cherokee county, Alabama, for murder, was arrested and lodged in jail here and the authorities in Alabama were notified. Gibby was a white man, about 35 years of age, and was arrested by Sheriff Blair, of Cherokee county, Alabama, came to identify the murderer and carry him back with him, but Gibby proved not to be the man. So he was released from jail and Sheriff Blair returned to Alabama alone.

Fight in a Billiard Saloon.

AUGUSTA, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Messrs. Beary Parker and George Chassereau, a couple of sports, had a lively fight in the billiard parlors of the Arlington hotel this afternoon. Mr. Parker claimed that Chassereau was interfering in a game of pool he was playing with another party and he called Chassereau down. Both men got angry and grabbed hold of a billiard cue and got to scuffling about it. Chassereau drew a pistol, but was prevented from using it. Mr. Parker got struck on the left temple with the butt of the weapon. The police prevented further trouble.

ALLIANCEMEN OF MUFFLE.

The First Day's Proceedings of the Rally at White Oak Campground. THORNTON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—This was the first day of the alliance rally at White Oak campground. The audience was estimated at about five hundred and was headed by Hon. Thomas E. Winn and Larry Gantt were the speakers today. Mr. Winn's speech was conservative and statesmanlike. He urged harmony in the ranks of the alliance, and his presentation of the subcommittee was an able argument—one of the best we have ever heard. He didn't refer to the third party movement. Mr. Gantt's speech was in the main, devoted to financial questions. He said there was no third party in Georgia, and that the alliance had swallowed the democratic party; that when it came to national politics he would cast his vote for the man who stood nearest the Ocala platform. The afternoon was devoted to what was termed an experience meeting. Resolutions were adopted in which they instructed the senators and members of the house of the tenth district to vote against adjournment until the railroads were forced to conform to the constitution. They also adopted resolutions condemning THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA JOURNAL and Herald for their condemnation of the ninety-four.

Colonel Ford and Hon. Thomas E. Watson will speak tomorrow.

Alliance Meeting at Spring Place.

DALETON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—The confederate veterans and county alliance of Murray county, had a grand mass meeting and banquet dinner today at Spring Place. Hon. J. C. Clements addressed the large crowd in the forenoon, first to the veterans, and in conclusion discussed the political issues of the day, criticizing the Ocala platform with some severity. Captain G. W. Paul, alliance lecturer of Whitfield county, replied to Mr. Clements, defending the alliance demands and giving the old practice versus the new. There were six hundred and twenty-five present, and a fine supply of the things that encourage an appetite was furnished with hospitable freedom. The moved gave demonstrative evidence of the good feeling between the two organizations.

WILL RETURN TO BLUFFTON.

Mr. Robertson Says He Cannot Be Run from His Home.

SAVANNAH, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Among the passengers on the steamship from New York this morning was Mr. and Mrs. D. Robertson, of Bluffton—that is, Mr. Robertson was a resident of Bluffton until about a month ago, when he was run out of that town, as stated in this CONSTITUTION at the time.

This morning he and Mrs. Robertson made a statement. Mr. Robertson said he desired to state that he was run out of Bluffton, and that he is going back there, though he did not mention the date of his return definitely.

He was asked if he thought the threats made against him were serious. He replied, "I may be carried out first, foremost, but I will not be driven away from my home. It is because I have more brains than the rest of them that they want to get me to leave the place. These people who are talking about me are citizens of Savannah, and not of Bluffton. I am popular over there."

Mrs. Robertson says that her husband was being persecuted by a man named "Tom," who was in politics, their house was shot into. This is no new experience. Some gentlemen, who own property at Bluffton, expressed the hope recently that Robertson would stay away. He has been a disturbing factor over there for a long time, they say. There will be developments, and they will be interesting.

THE MACON CITY COURT.

It Will Be Called to Order Next Monday Morning.

MACON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Clerk Nisbet of the Macon city court, was today reported to that position by Judge Ross.

Clerk Nisbet has held his present position since the organization of the court in 1885, and was first appointed by Judge Harris. He was reappointed twice by that official, and his third term of office expired yesterday. Judge Ross, who succeeded Judge Harris, has appointed Nisbet to fill the position, appointed him again for another two years.

The docket of the city court for the coming term is the largest in the history of the court. Numerous cases have been set for trial next week, those for the first four being as follows:

MONDAY. Filmore Brown, misdemeanor; D. W. Lucas, selling liquor without a license; D. W. Lucas, assault and battery; Press Bonner, assault and battery; E. T. Hodgkins, assault and battery; S. Butte, larceny from the house; James Randall, assault and battery; Louisa Hollingsworth, assault and battery; Henry Pratt, assault and battery; Maggie McManus, larceny from the house.

TUESDAY. Charley Booker, carrying concealed weapons; Charley Booker, et al., riot; Melinda Teale, misdemeanor; Lizzie Brown, larceny; W. H. Brice, carrying concealed weapons; Burke, assault and battery; Gilbert Kinick, larceny from the house; Ed Daniel, simple larceny; George Davis, larceny from the house.

WEDNESDAY. McKenit et al., assault and battery; Louisa Galt, assault and battery; O. C. Bazemore, misdemeanor; M. G. Wood, assault and battery; M. G. Wood, misdemeanor; G. H. Noxy, cheating and swindling.

THEIR FIRST DRILL.

The Drill Team of the Macon Odd Fellows Begins Work.

MACON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Last night, at their hall on Cottonwood street, the drill team recently organized by the Odd Fellows of this city, began work. They were under command of Mr. W. A. Davis, a very popular member of the order. The gentleman will have them in charge and instruct them in the necessary maneuvers. The drill last night showed that there is some serious business in the team, and gave promise of a brilliant future for them. The members seemed to take hold of the work from the start, and the drilling after a little instruction, elicited the admiration of their commander and the applause of their friends who had assembled to witness their first effort.

The team now consists of sixteen men besides the commander, who has assumed to be considerably increased in the near future. All the Odd Fellows of this city are interested in their team, and are giving the members of it as much encouragement as possible.

Mr. Davis expects to have his team in fine condition in a very short time.

IN THE BIBB SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Miller Returns to that City and Issues Orders.

MACON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Judge A. L. Miller, of the Bibb superior court, returned to the city today, and issued orders in north Georgia, and issued the following orders:

An order for Receiver Sparks to pay to the Lowry Banking company, of Atlanta, the amount where the homes of the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad bonds.

An order postponing the hearing of the case of C. C. Davidson vs. J. B. Hinton, until next Thursday.

An order making L. P. and B. W. James parties to the case of McClellan vs. C. C. Davidson, and to the case of the Macon Construction company vs. The Macon Construction company.

An order postponing the hearing of the case of A. E. Kline vs. Sons vs. O. L. Kennerly et al. until October 1st.

Judge Miller will be in the city tomorrow and Tuesday, and will hear motions, after which he will again leave for the mountains, where he will remain until the October term of court.

THE MACON TRADES DISPLAY.

President Van of the Association, Making Preparations for It.

MACON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—The trades display will be one of the most interesting features of the gala week to be held at this place in October.

President J. Van, of the Trades Display Association, is doing all in his power to make the affair a success. He is having printed 500 postal cards to be sent to the exhibitors, and is questioning him to assist the enterprise by furnishing a float. Accompanying him to the fair, a bill and a circular will be sent to be filled out and returned if the exhibitor wishes to furnish a float.

In his letter President Van expects to learn positively in a short time just how many floats to expect and how many to prepare for.

Macore's merchants are deeply interested in this enterprise, and they expect to make a glorious success of it.

Caterpillars in Bibb.

MACON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—It is reported that Major R. F. Lawton's place near Macon is infested with caterpillars. The cotton crop on the place is young and will be considerably damaged by them, unless they are speedily exterminated. Last spring lawton almost completely destroyed Major Lawton's cotton, and now it seems that the caterpillars are bent on finishing the work.

Their Anniversary.

MACON, September 1.—[Special.]—Last night the Uniform Rank of Knights of Pythias celebrated their anniversary in this city in grand style.

They gave an excellent exhibition drill, after which they had a banquet at the city hall. Speeches, toasts, etc., were the order of the evening.

James C. Shaw Dropped.

SAVANNAH, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Mr. James C. Shaw, the traveling passenger agent of the Central railroad, severs his connection with the company on October 1st. His office has been abolished by the lessors of that road, and they find it necessary to cut down expenses. Mr. Shaw has been with the Central railroad for twenty-two years. He has been a very popular and efficient officer. Nearly all the people who have office prior to the leasing of the road have been dismissed.

Headache, neuralgia, dizziness, nervousness, spasms, sleeplessness, cured by Dr. Miles' Nervine. Sample free at all druggists.

Weakness.

How many suffer from weakness? And what a distressing ailment it is. Always paying to strength and yet feeling oneself growing weaker. There is great virtue in B. B. (Bottled Blood Balm) as a strengthening as well as a healing medicine. Try it as a tonic and see how much better you will feel. It will improve both appetite and digestion. It is an excellent remedy to use while convalescing. It aids a natural and rapid recovery. In cases where the system remains long in bed, and has suffered other uses break out, this remedy will afford quick relief.

Dr. J. C. Clements, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had a long spell of typhoid fever, which at last seemed to settle in my right leg, which swelled up considerably. I was unable to get up, and was charged a quart of matter a day. I then got Dr. B. B. Balm, and used it on my leg, and in a few days I was able to get up, and in a short time I was cured."

A New Masonic Building.

ROME, Ga., August 31.—[Special.]—The Cherokee lodge of Masons will have a handsome three-story building erected at once. The location will be adjoining to the Masonic temple, facing Fourth avenue. The first floor will be converted into offices. The second floor will be for the use of the lodge, and the third floor is to be the grand banquet hall of this famous lodge.

Given General Satisfaction.

ROME, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—The new building for the H. A. Smith, which was dedicated yesterday, has given general satisfaction.

Work of the Knife.

A MERCHANT OF CARROLLTON IS FATALITY STABBED.

By a Rough Character Whom He Was Ejecting from the Store—Other News of the State.

CARROLLTON, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Carrollton had a severe cutting affair just at dark tonight. Grant Gilley, a farmer living near town, was drunk, and went into the store of Hamrick & Corder and commenced swearing.

Mr. S. M. Corder, one of the proprietors, asked Gilley to get out, which he said, with an oath, that he would not do, and Mr. Corder put him out of the door of the store, but not until Gilley had entirely dismembered Corder. It is thought that Corder cannot live. S. M. Corder is a good citizen, and has many friends in the town and county.

DOWN AT NEWMAN.

Atkinson and Whitley Given a Reception By Their Constituents.

NEWMAN, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Quite a large crowd assembled in the courthouse tonight to hear speeches from the Hon. W. Y. Atkinson and S. R. Whitley, the representatives in the house from Coweta county.

DOWN AT NEWMAN.

Atkinson and Whitley Given a Reception By Their Constituents.

NEWMAN, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Quite a large crowd assembled in the courthouse tonight to hear speeches from the Hon. W. Y. Atkinson and S. R. Whitley, the representatives in the house from Coweta county.

By invitation of the citizens of Newman, Colonel John B. Wilcox acted as chairman. Messrs. Hill, of Meriwether; Davis, of Burke; Spaulding, of Randolph, and Sibley, of Cobb, accompanied the party from Atlanta.

A delegation of citizens met the train on its arrival at 8 o'clock, and the legislators were taken in charge.

The first speech was made by Mr. Hill, who repeated what he said last Friday.

Mr. Hill, who was accompanied by Mr. Sibley, who spoke about half an hour.

Then came Mr. Whitley, who was followed by Mr. Sibley.

The closing speech was made by Mr. Atkinson, who was applauded as he faced the audience. He spoke an hour, his language being comparatively mild; but he gave pretty much the same message as he did in Atlanta, and he denounced severely those who participated in it. His references to Dr. J. B. Hawthorne were most bitter.

Colonel George C. Michael introduced a resolution ordering the course taken by Representatives Atkinson and Whitley regarding the soldiers' home.

Colonel P. H. Brewster spoke in opposition to the resolution. His speech was strong and spirited, and was heard attentively by the large crowd.

Judge A. D. Freeman supported the resolution. The resolution was finally adopted.

Dr. Paulding was to have spoken, but he was taken ill at the fair while he was eating supper, and was unable to speak.

LIGHT FOR AUGUSTA.

The Committee Meets and Opens the Bids for Lighting the City.

AUGUSTA, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—The lamp committee of the city council met today, and opened the bids for lighting the city. There were nine bidders, three of them from Augusta. The bids were made under the following plans and specifications: Two hundred and fifty arc lights of 2,000-candle power, 125 incandescent lights of thirty-two candle power, seventy-five incandescent lights of sixty-five candle power, and one hundred and fifty arc lights of 2,000-candle power. The bids were to be made by the following companies: Augusta Electric Light Company, Augusta Gas Company, D. B. Dyer, of Augusta; Huslin Electric Company, of Washington city; L. N. Cox, N. C. Electric Light Company, of Atlanta; and the Electric Company, of Canton. The committee will meet Thursday night and decide upon which bid to accept.

THE TRAIN WAS DELAYED.

A Little Accident on the Georgia Railroad Monday Night.

AUGUSTA, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—An accident occurred on the Georgia railroad last night, which blocked the track and delayed the night passenger train from Atlanta four hours. The accident occurred at the crossing of the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad, where the tracks crossed at a right angle. The passenger train, which was carrying a full complement of passengers, was delayed by the accident. The cause of the accident was a small fire which broke out on the passenger train. The fire was quickly extinguished, but it caused the train to stop for several hours. The passengers were inconvenienced, but no one was injured.

The Rice Crop.

SAVANNAH, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—A close inspection shows that the grain has not been injured perceptibly by the recent rains, and if the weather will only continue fair for a while, the rice crop will be a very successful one. The rice is now in the field, and the farmers are working hard to harvest it. The weather has been very favorable for the crop, and the farmers are expecting a good yield.

Not Afraid of the Bill.

SAVANNAH, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Savannah has no fear of the bill introduced by Representative Humphreys, of Rome, yesterday, requiring all postmen to hand the tax collector a list of depositors and the amount they have deposited by April 1st of each year.

In his letter to the bill will be coming in, said one of them this morning, "and we feel no uneasiness about it. It is like a great many other bills introduced by Congress, and it will be passed without any trouble."

The bill is a very important one, and it will be a great benefit to the people. It will help to reduce the tax burden on the people, and it will help to improve the government.

A New Sunday Paper.

COLUMBUS, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—A new Sunday paper, entitled The Herald, will be started here on Sunday, September 7th. The paper will be published by George C. Guild and C. O. Owen, publishers, and J. G. Bromell editor and manager.

Three miles and a half of iron have arrived for the North Highlands electric railway, and the work is being vigorously pushed forward.

Gordon Institute Opens.

BARNESVILLE, Ga., September 1.—The fall term of Gordon institute began yesterday. Barnesville is bright and happy. Three hundred pupils answered to the roll call the first day, and still every trainee is coming.

This is the largest beginning in the history of Barnesville's institution, and her people are delighted to see the school so well patronized.

A New Depot Needed.

LUMPKIN, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Lumpkin stands very much in need of a new depot. The little waiting room in that diminutive building furnishes standing room for about twelve persons, and it is no comfort. Last Sunday a party of forty or fifty people was waiting for the train, a heavy rain came up, and a good many of them were forced to stand and take a thorough drenching because they could not get into the depot or under the roof.

After the Red Fox.

MASSA, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—Messrs. Tom and Harrison Butler, George Walker and Wade Lamar, of Aiken, left this morning with a pack of forty hounds in a red fox chase. They went about twelve miles up the river.

He Also Hunts Teeth.

LUMPKIN, Ga., September 1.—[Special.]—A traveling variety showman is in town this week. Part of his troupe has not arrived. In the meantime he extracts teeth by the pack. He has the nucleus of an aviary with several species of the waders or crane family. One large bird, about three feet high, with a conical bill, is the star of the show. He is a very interesting man, and he has the most gorgeous plumage of any bird we ever saw. The doctor expects to give a few entertainments while in town.

FOUR CALVES AT ONE BIRTH.

Khedive Pet Surprises Her Owner by Bearing the Record.

GREENVILLE, Miss., September 1.—[Special.]—Khedive Pet, a registered Jersey cow owned by Charles H. Smith, gave birth to four healthy, living calves—two males and two females—last night at his residence. The calves were born at midnight, and the owner of the valuable and productive cow, Mr. C. H. Smith, conveyed her correspondent to his home, where the valuable cow and her four healthy progeny were seen this afternoon. The calves are small, but strong and healthy. No one was more surprised than the owner, who was aroused at 5 o'clock this morning by a negro attendant, calling at the top of his voice that Pet had given birth to four calves. In haste Mr. Smith went to the enclosure and found the four bright calves beside their mother.

Khedive Pet is above the average size Jersey, and is a descendant of the famous Khedive family of Jerseys. Khedive Pet was raised by D. J. Phillips, of Bowling Green, Ky. The number of her herd register is 45,391.

CHARLESTON'S BUSINESS.

An Increase of Over Seventeen Millions Over Last Year.

CHARLESTON, S. C., September 1.—The total business of Charleston's year just closed, shows a net increase of $17,338,001 over the trade of 1889-90. The total trade of the city for the year 1890-91 was $38,554,003, as compared with $20,619,717 in 1889-90. Five years ago the trade of Charleston amounted to $10,948,532. It will be remembered that five years ago on Monday night last the very foundations of the city were shaken, and millions of dollars' worth of property was laid in ruins. But at the end of five years of intelligent efforts and conservative business methods, Charleston has removed a gain of $31,606,186 in its trade and commerce.

DOES NOT BELIEVE IT.

General Manager Arthur Says He Knows Nothing of the Reported Deal.

MIDDLESBOROUGH, Ky., September 1.—[Special.]—The reported sale of the Knoxville and Cumberland Gap road to the Louisville and Nashville company cannot be verified in this city. Alexander A. Arthur, general manager of the American association, says he knows nothing of the deal, and that he puts no credence in the report whatever.

A Railroad Rumor.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., September 1.—[Special.]—It is reported today on reliable authority that the option of the stock of the Chattanooga Southern railroad has been given to Boston parties. A Boston accountant is here going over the books of the Chattanooga Union and Chattanooga Southern railroads. C. E. James, president of both companies, refused to deny or affirm the reports. The principal part of the stock of both roads is held here. It means the turning loose of over a million dollars.

HE RAISED A STORM.

Great Success Attends the Experiments of the Kalmakers.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., September 1.—Melborn's rainmaking has been crowned with success. At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon a storm suddenly broke forth, contrary to all expectations, and two hours later there was a heavy rain, in accordance with Melborn's predictions. The rainfall extended over a radius of fifteen to twenty miles around Cheyenne, and was a great benefit to the crops. There was no premonition of the coming storm.

Seventy Miles an Hour.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, September 1.—A Canadian Pacific mail train, with the mail of the steamer Express, of India, passed here yesterday. It is trying to catch a steamer that leaves New York for England Wednesday, and it succeeds the mail will reach England tomorrow. On the level prairie west of this city the rate of seventy miles an hour was reached at times.

Lumbermen's Association.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., September 1.—The Mississippi Valley Lumbermen's Association was organized here today. The chief object of the association was to raise the price of lumber, and report was unanimously adopted which recommended an advance of $1 per thousand, the Minneapolis list to be used as a basis from this time forth.

MASHERS DOWNED.

THE PEOPLE APPLAUD MR. MAY'S ACTION

An knocking down the Young Fellow Monday Night—Three are Fined. A Similar Case.

The people of Atlanta sustain Mr. May for knocking down a tough night before last for assaulting his wife and daughter. Yesterday there was much talk of the matter in the city, and all sided with Mr. May. This thing of street-mashers and the insulting of ladies is receiving a great deal of talk, and the comment yesterday was exceedingly strong.

The trial of the young fellows arrested on the May case occurred yesterday morning, and Judge Calhoun gave a very sensible talk. He sentenced Henry Clark to pay $50 and costs or work thirty days on the streets. Henry Parker received the same sentence, and Ed Ingalls was charged $25 and costs.

The latter paid his fine. The other two went to the stocks, but Parker's fine was paid and he will be released this morning.

The judge stated that he had heard the National Hotel was a very bad place, and he wanted the crowd broken up that frequented it. He released all but those mentioned above.

Another Masher Mashed.

There was another mash made Monday, and Decatur street was the scene.

The head of a young man was mowed by a big hickory stick in the hands of an indignant father.

The case has not and will not go into the courts, and therefore the names are withheld; but a mention of the case shows how this mashing business is being received.

A father received word that his daughter had been approached by a man on Decatur street. The father was sick, but going to the masher, and the masher was being treated, and on all sides the actions of the men who do the knocking are being praised.

For Burglary.

D. Cannon, a well-known young man of Atlanta, was arrested early yesterday morning on a charge of burglary.

It seems that last Sunday, while Mr. H. R. Austin and his family were at church, some one entered the residence on Hood street, and took therefrom several articles of value.

The case was reported, and Patrolman Swann arrested Cannon for doing the work. The case was further investigated, and some of the goods were found in his possession. A pawn shop was found a fine shotgun that had been taken, and Cannon held the ticket. The trial will probably occur today.

For Assault.

Tom Cobb, a sabbie young citizen, was arrested by Sheriff Merritt early yesterday morning for cutting a woman. The woman was not seriously hurt, but Cobb is held for assault with intent to murder.

May Be a Murderer.

Patrolmen Phillips and Ben Smith arrested a negro yesterday, whom they think is wanted in Social Circle for killing a negro named Bob Harris in Social Circle in the month of May.

The negro arrested is known as Gus Pope and John Floyd and several other names. No disposition will be made until Social Circle is heard from.

A Near Capture.

Patrolman George Phillips arrested a negro named Annie Ballard yesterday for entering the house of Mr. George R. Allen, and taking a lot of clothing and a gold-headed cane, presented by the Southern Travelers' Association.

All the goods were recovered, and the negro was locked up. Mr. Allen and family are out of the city, and nothing is known of the loss by them. It was a quick piece of work, and the negro was jailed before notification of the burglary was sent in.

On a Warrent.

Patrolman McHenry arrested a negro yesterday who is wanted for throwing rocks through a window at a lady, near Decatur. There was a warrant out for him, and his name is said to be Sloan Hawkins, although he gives it as Joe Brown.

Sent to Jail.

John Falls, the negro arrested by Patrolman Frank Whitley for knocking another negro in the head and nearly killing him, was given a preliminary hearing before Judge Landrum yesterday, and in default of bond was sent to jail.

A Correction.

ATLANTA, Ga., September 1.—Editor Constitution: Will you kindly say for us in your paper that we were in error in the issue of this morning in stating that Mr. C. J. Haden, of this city, was party to the bill filed for receivership against us yesterday? We find, upon investigation, that Mr. Haden signed the affidavit as agent for Messrs. Stillwell, Miller & Co., and did not claim that we were due him anything. We desire to correct our error as regards Mr. Haden. Very truly, AUSTIN & BOYLSTON.

HOW THE PEOPLE ARE SPENDING THE SUMMER.

Gossip about the favorite resorts—Entertainments in the City During the Week—Personal Mention.

Some very spicy accounts come to me concerning certain gaieties at the White Sulphur this summer. I hear that the wine flowed like water in various and sundry private apartments, and that the debauches were entirely out of it, being entirely too fresh and unsophisticated for the environment composed of men of the world and young married women rather riques as to manner and demeanor. Why don't the American mother come to the front more on such occasions to uphold and protect these callow-life olive branches whose fair leaves are fast unfolding to the enlightening glare of the world's daylight?

Fifty of these mothers are old enough and young enough and pretty enough to do a good deal against the married belle, and that with perfect self-respect. The young maiden is left decidedly helpless, and finds herself frequently in a rather deserted state.

Captain and Mrs. Henry Jackson and Miss Cornelia Jackson leave for New York on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker and Miss Maude Barker are at White Path.

A delightful straw ride was given about the city and to Ponce de Leon last evening by a party of young people. It was complimentary to Miss George Parsons, of New York, who was the guest of the Misses Stillman, on Fulliam street. There were present: Misses Gertrude Jackson, Dora Abbie, Genevieve Saunders, Lucy McClellan, Nellie Stillman, Leone Stillman and Mrs. M. E. Stillman; Messrs. N. J. Norman, J. H. Claiborne, O. H. Jones, R. F. Jones, A. F. Ray, W. H. Ashford, King Stillman, John Stillman, Lou Stillman and Sam Gilbert.

Miss Hallie Wimberly, of Macon, is the guest of Miss Dottie Colquitt at her home in Edgewood.

The N. S. Club will give their first season's party at the handsome home of Captain English next Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Grant and Miss Grant returned Monday evening from Asheville, where they have been spending the summer delightfully at the Battery Park hotel.

Next Saturday afternoon a tennis match will occur on the grounds of the Edgewood Tennis Club that will excite much interest in tennis circles. Lieutenant Bethel and Mr. Charles Smith of the McPherson barracks club, will try issues with Messrs. T. J. Feltner and J. H. Claiborne, the victors in the recent match between the Edgewood and Boulevard clubs. It will be a case of Greek meet Greek, both teams being composed of skillful players, and each club having its reputation to uphold.

Mr. Morris Brandon and Mr. Gordon Kiser have returned from Allegheny Springs, Va.

Mr. Thomas Payne and Mr. St. Julien Ravenel have returned from Greenbrier White Sulphur.

I hear that Mr. McAllen B. Marsh is receiving from and extending to the first society people in New York many charming courtesies. Mr. Onatario, Perry Wall's successor in golf dressing, etc., etc., entertained Mr. Marsh elegantly on many occasions, and he is, as are all well bred southern men, very popular with the women of New York's Four Hundred. Northern women appreciate extremely the courtesy and character of southern men.

Mr. Edgar Kilby left last evening for a three weeks' stay in New York.

Mrs. J. C. Carlisle, of Jacksonville, Fla., having spent several weeks in New York and Washington, is now at the Kimball.

Miss Pearl Broyles sails tomorrow for New York with Mrs. Knott and her daughter, Miss Stella.

There will soon be another concert given by the Society of Christian Endeavor of the Fifth Baptist church on Thursday, September 10th. This concert will be given at the Frohman hall, 605 1/2 East Third street, and will be given for the sole benefit of the church. Some of Atlanta's best talent has been secured, and those who do not go will miss a treat.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lyle have gone to Clarksville, Tenn., where they will remain two or three weeks.

Mrs. Hal Morrison has returned from Savannah, where she has been passing the summer with friends.

Miss Letta Crawford, of Dawson, is visiting relatives on Alexander street.

Miss Beattie Quicker, the charming daughter of Captain L. M. Quicker, returned home yesterday, after a visit to Columbia, Miss.

Mrs. R. L. Sykes, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles F. Rice, returned to her home in Columbus, Miss., last evening.

Miss Birdie Fechtelmeier returned Sunday to her home at Detroit, Mich., after a pleasant visit of several weeks in Atlanta at the home of Mrs. Oscar Fappenberg.

The family of Mr. T. A. Peasdale arrived in the city yesterday from an enjoyable trip to Columbia, Miss.

Mrs. DeRose has returned home, after a visit to North Carolina.

Invitations have been issued for a birthday party to be given in honor of little Miss Gladys Snook tomorrow afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at the home of her mother, Mrs. P. H. Snook, in Edgewood.

Mrs. John A. Gee and daughters, Misses Maude and Ruby, have returned home after a pleasant visit of several weeks with friends in Virginia.

Mrs. William Inman and mother, Mrs. Holt, of Macon, have returned to Atlanta, after an enjoyable trip to Lookout inn.

Mr. Thomas B. Moss, of Lexington, Ga., who was for forty-one years principal of Meigs academy in Lexington, is in the city en route home from a visit to Knoxville, Tenn.

The Misses Andersons have been visiting Miss Davidson, on Houston street, returned to Dalton yesterday.

Mrs. J. H. Denek will, in a few days, visit relatives in South Carolina.

The Misses Romare are at Salt Springs and will remain till the warm weather is over.

Miss Genie Boykin is visiting her cousin, Miss Irene Nisbet, at Gioverdale, in Dade county.

Mrs. Samuel Boykin is in Macon visiting her sister.

Mrs. Marie Robinson-Wright has gone to New York on a week's visit.

Miss Hattie Byrd, of Birmingham, is visiting relatives in Atlanta.

Mrs. W. H. Orchard, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas C. Lipscomb, at Ninety-six, S. C., has returned home.

Mr. Henry Hillier has been enjoying a week's visit in the country.

The Misses Henderson, two exceedingly attractive young ladies of Knoxville, Tenn., will soon visit Atlanta.

Miss Emma C. Hahr, spending the month of September with relatives in Marietta.

Miss Nellie Edwards, of Quincy, Fla., is visiting Atlanta friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Melton, who have been in Atlanta the past six months, have returned to their home in Columbia, S. C.

Judge W. W. Montgomery, of Augusta, has returned home.

Mr. H. C. Fairman has returned from Florence, Ala., where he went to visit his family.

The young people of the Central Presbyterian church will soon resume their pleasant fortnightly "socials."

Mrs. J. D. Vardaman leaves Atlanta today for Washington city, to be gone two months.

An effort will soon be made to reconstitute the Authors' Club, which was one of the most successful literary organizations ever known in Atlanta.

Mr. Harold G. Simpson, of Columbus, Ga., will shortly visit Atlanta.

FOR COLORED YOUTHS.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE COLORED INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL MEET.

They Elect R. B. Wright, of Augusta, as President—Who the Other Professors Are—Will Open October 1st.

The trustees of the Industrial School for Colored Youths met yesterday in the state library. The trustees are Hon. P. W. McHardy, of Savannah, president; Judge W. B. Hammond, of Atlanta, secretary; T. J. Feltner, of Americus; Mayor Cline, of Milledgeville.

Chancellor Boggs, of the State university, was present.

The trustees were busy all day with the business that came up. The morning session was consumed by routine work, and little business of public interest transacted.

In the afternoon professors to fill the different chairs of the college were elected.

Who They Are.

R. B. Wright, of Augusta, was elected president and instructor in English language and literature.

D. C. Sugg, of Livingston college, Salisbury, N. C., was elected vice president and instructor in natural sciences.

Frank E. Cobb, of Round Oak, Ga., was elected instructor in mathematics.

The position of instructor in industrial education will be filled October 1st.

Loring B. Palmer, of Atlanta, was elected assistant instructor in English and other branches.

James M. Sims, of Savannah, was elected proctor and steward. He is an ex-member of the legislature and bears a good character.

The trustees adjourned to meet subject to the call of the chairman, after the opening of the college.

The college is to be located in Savannah, and starts out with the best of prospects.

Mr. George Parsons, of New York, has kindly given ten acres of land, on which there stands a splendid building, to the college.

The land lies just out of Savannah.

The work on the building for the school is being pushed rapidly, and will be ready for the opening of the school on October 1st.

The dormitories of the main building are being fitted up for the accommodation of students.

The prospects are now that there will be a large attendance at the opening of the college.

Chancellor Boggs Talks.

"The college starts off with the most flattering prospects in the judgment of our colored friends," said Mr. Boggs. "They certainly start with a good faculty, composed of good, honest colored men. The election of Wright, of Augusta, as president, meets not only the approval of his race, but of all the whites who are acquainted with his faithful work in the cause of colored education."

THEY'RE ON THE MARCH.

A New York Detective Talks of Debbars in "Green Goods."

Charley Roth, one of Inspector Byrne's "headquarter men" from New York, passed through Atlanta yesterday for Opelika. In the course of a conversation he said:

"I know a pretty good story that concerns quite a number of people here. A little under a month ago some of Anthony Constable's officers arrested a man named Davis in New York for sending out 'green goods' circulars. Davis was right-hand man for the notorious Ed Parmelee, and what he had been really doing was working over Parmelee's old books. That is to say, he would obtain from the register the gang kept, the addresses of those who had written a letter of inquiry, but who for some reason or other had never come on to New York. Then he would make an appointment with them with a view of seeing them at their homes and delivering the 'goods' there—introducing the commercial traveler idea.

"In conjunction with this he had another brilliant scheme, which was to take a copy of the names of all those who had been on to buy green goods themselves, and send out a couple of men to blackmail them. The victims were told that there was a prosecution on foot in which their names were apt to appear, and were invited to subscribe to the defense fund.

"His two envoys were named Hanlon and Foster, and they have been at Nashville, Montgomery, New Orleans and quite a number of other points south. As Mobile Foster got mad at Hanlon and quit him, on the very peculiar ground that he was not a gentleman. He took the lists with him, and as a matter of spirit, gave them to a railroad detective, whom he knew. This happened three or four days ago, and I have had a look at them. They are very rich documents, I assure you. They contain the names of everybody in Georgia who has been to New York after 'green goods' for the last five years, and a publication of them would make a good many prominent citizens hunt the tail timber. I suppose there must have been a hundred in all. Talk about free coinage—it isn't in it."

"What is he going to do with this list?" asked Mr. Roth's auditor, whose curiosity was considerably whetted.

"Good heavens, man," exclaimed the detective, "to him to burn it up quick. If a thing like that got out so many people would have to change their names that you would need a new state directory."

ODD FELLOWS' ORPHANS' HOME.

A Joint Committee from Several Lodges Meet and Transact Important Business.

The joint committee from the several lodges of Independent Order Odd Fellows met last night to consider what should be done to secure the location of the orphan's home in or near Atlanta.

The committee organized by selecting W. C. Shearer, of Atlanta lodge, as chairman; Casper Brenning, of Schiller lodge, treasurer; and W. H. Harrison, of Capitol lodge, as secretary.

A subcommittee of four, consisting of W. C. Shearer, H. Franklin, J. N. Bateman and M. Foote, was appointed to invite propositions from land owners in and around Atlanta for suitable property for a site for the home.

The committee resolved to go before the several lodges and ask them to take prompt action, in order that the committee may know where they propose to do in the matter of subscribing for the home, and especially what inducement they propose to offer to have the home located here.

After discussing the subject the committee adjourned to meet on the night of the 15th of September, unless sooner called by the chairman.

The committee are enthused on the subject and trust that they may succeed in planting this great charity in Fulton county.

A SPLENDID SPEAKER.

Colonel Nolan Captivates a Large Audience Last Evening.

An interesting lecture was delivered by Colonel T. C. Nolan, of McDonough, last evening at Asbury church. The subject was, "The Gospel of the Geth" and it was splendidly handled.

He first spoke of the history of the Geths and their opposition to the Christian church; then showed that the theory of the Geths was formulated into modern infidelity, and gave the effects of unbelief upon the social and moral world, as contrasted to the workings of Christianity.

Colonel Nolan is a scholar who has studied and made deep research into the subject which he so ably discussed. At the conclusion of the lecture he was made the recipient of a shower of bouquets from all parts of the church, which was crowded, and a request made for a repetition of the evening's entertainment. The lecture was given for the benefit of the church and netted a handsome sum.

THEN AND NOW.

Clothing styles have changed in the last decade, particularly Boys' Clothing. Not a store in the country gives it the thought and study that we do. Constantly endeavoring to improve. School days are near enough to warrant some attention being paid the youngsters' outfit. Here's news that will interest all the town:

If you own one boy between the age of four and fourteen, or ten of them, and want Clothes for him—or them—call at our Boys' Department and try the power of a few coins. For two weeks we offer a reduction of 25 per cent on all light and medium weight Suits. This will add extra zest to school starting.

We can't afford to let the Ready-Made jump the Tailoring claim in advertising. This branch is now in the glory and fullness of perfect organization. Mr. A. # A RAILROAD.

WHICH MAY BE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO THE PEOPLE OF GEORGIA.

The Congressional Road Adopted—The Crime Solution.

There were some important house yesterday. Among others, there was a bill introduced by Mr. Pope, of Oglethorpe, to remedy the difficulties of the railroad. It was adopted by a vote of 100 yeas to 90 nays.

During the session of the house a resolution was passed by the general assembly requiring the enforcement of the law with regard to the formal bill, which we present in full. It is the outcome of several nights ago several resolutions, which are of importance to the people of Georgia. The bill is introduced by Mr. Pope, of Oglethorpe, and is entitled "A bill to amend an act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same."

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia in session assembled, That whenever any railroad company shall have made any contract or agreement with any other corporation, or with any individual, for the purpose of securing the completion of any railroad, and such contract or agreement shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said contract or agreement shall be null and void, and the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 3. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 4. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 5. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 6. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 7. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 8. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 9. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

Section 10. Be it further enacted, That if any railroad company shall be found to be in violation of the provisions of the act to provide for the construction of a railroad from the city of Savannah to the city of Macon, and for the purpose of securing the completion of the same, then and in every such case, the said railroad company shall be liable to the payment of a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, for each and every such violation.

LEHMAN BROS. &amp; CO.'S PRIVATE WIRE.

Received from Lehman Bros. & Co.'s Private Wire by Messrs. Youngblood & Haas.

NEW YORK, September 1.—Our market today has been almost a repetition of the past few days, opening steady at about closing prices, subsequently, under the influence of former Liverpool and a general desire to buy, rapidly advanced about 20 points when, however, further realizing caused a decline of about 10 points, at which the market closed steady. In the way of crop news there has been nothing new today of special significance, although, we may add, that the advice which continues to reach us from all quarters, conclusively that the prospects are unfavorable, and that the wheat, however, our market is still sensitive and quick to feel the influence of any additional factors which may come to hand, so we may see considerable fluctuations either way. We continue to feel that values, although advancing, make a rapid advance, are still reasonable with the prospects as they now appear, and unless they change for the better we believe it advisable to buy on all spots.
